

Breadcrumbs of Kindness
at The Rail Station

“I think you are very kind”
I said “sharing your sandwich.”
She smiled, the pigeons kept walking busily between her feet
just across from mine.
They might be doves. Whatever birds
they are, they were certainly pleased to be the recipients of this small act of random kindness.

Tim W Powell 1958 - 2013